Re: January 24th Lunch and Learn Session at Teldon

Dear Paul,

It was a real pleasure having you facilitate a lunch and learn session at Teldon last month. Although the session was short due to our employee shift requirements, it was extremely inspiring and educational. As a result of your session, many of the attendees applied some of the tips you suggested. One employee in particular found the seminar to be life changing. You gave her the confidence to make a fresh start.

Thank you again for your positive information and encouragement. I look forward to attending future sessions facilitated by you.

Sincerely,
